- 1 Four bedrooms up, master bedroom down.
The Hubles lived here until they moved to town.
- 2 This barn is here to welcome you,
Look in me to find your next clue.
- 3 The sparks of steel fly up the flue,
The smith pounds metal to create a horseshoe.
- 4 They used this to travel over the ground.
It was hooked to horses and they pulled it around.
- 5 Even in the summer, when the sun gets hot,
Vegetables placed in me will never rot.
- 6 To keep the fish all year long,
I kept the smoke a blowin' strong.
- 7 On the river they travelled, and I was the place,
Where men from sternwheelers unloaded with haste.
- 8 Ham is hung in this little house,
With legs of steel I keep out the mouse.
- 9 Ears down for cool, up for warm,
We like to hop around the farm.
- 10 I open my mouth and swallow the hay,
I keep it for a cold winter's day.
- 11 This is where Ed lays his head,
Cooks his food and bakes his bread.
- 12 Here you could trade your furs for supplies,
Today you'll find coffee, candy, and pies!
- 13 Carved out of cottonwood, my life was found.
Floated on the river and paddled around.
- 14 Here special tools to mend shoes are kept,
The first cabin in which Ed and Al slept.
